

New Hours, 9:00 to 6:00

The Palais Royal

A. Lisner, G and 11th

The Late "Opening"

The Improved Departments for Suits, Wraps and Millinery—the greater stocks and perfect appointments—have been much praised.

The opinions of the press—written by the society editors—have been as complimentary as the expressions of visiting friends and patrons.

EXTRACT—With the rose-shaded lights reflected in the sheens of satins and velvets and little groups of shoppers lingering long after purchasing to admire and chat about the newest modes, this section of the big department store took on the aspect of a drawing room during the crush hour.

Madame Miller

The Salon du Bon Ton of New York send their renowned corsetiere and fashion authority, who will present to Palais Royal patrons in her inimitable way the newest notes about corsetry.

BON TON are familiarly known as the "corsets de luxe," for they are recognized throughout the Fashion World as standard in style, fit and service.

The Corsetiere will impart to you many corset secrets of timely interest and value, and demonstrate how these matchless Bon Ton Corsets will improve the health, beautify the figure and create the fashionable contour of graceful curves so much admired.

Milady, whose price is from $3.50 to $10.00, are particularly advised to request Madame Miller to select and fit the model she advises. There will be no obligation to purchase.

Trimmings worthy of the hats—the new wings, breasts and novelty feathers, all colors and combinations, and black and white.
